July 2013 Newsletter

It's summertime - and wow, it's hot!

We had a great cool down with some homemade ice cream that brought out a few new faces and raised some generous funds for a family in need!

The Lincoln Terrace Neighborhood Association hosted the Scoop-A-Licious Neighborhood Ice Cream Social fundraiser to support a family impacted by the Moore tornado. The winner of the homemade ice cream contest was Carolyn McShan's divine caramel pecan ice cream! But the real winner was the teacher, Ms. M, and her family that we supported directly with our ice cream fundraiser: We raised $600 for our tornado-affected family!

Here's what Ms. M said when asked what she planned to do with the donations: "In my family [of six], we love family time. I'm going to go to the store and buy groceries. Because it's the little things like a home-cooked meal for my family and having a table to sit around and enjoy it together. The simplest needs being met - that makes us all the most happy."

Thank you all for your kindness and generosity - we are truly proud to live in Lincoln Terrace!
